

Georges Leung Shing holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics and is a Chartered Tax Adviser and a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. He was Senior Economist of the Mauritius Chamber of Agriculture from 1974 until 1981 when he joined Lonrho Mauritius. He was, in 1996, appointed Executive Chairperson of the Group which comprised Mon Trésor and Mon Désert Ltd (MTMD), Le Grand Gaube and Merville Beach hotels and a minority interest in Southern Cross Tourist Co Ltd. After the take-over of MTMD (subsequently called Omnicane Ltd) by Illovo Sugar Ltd in July 1997 and Omnicane Holdings Ltd in April 2001, he continued as Managing Director until his retirement on 31 March 2007 and as consultant for a further year.

He has served on most sugar-sector institutions in Mauritius, the Mauritius Employers' Federation and Joint Economic Council, and is a former President of the Mauritius Chamber of Agriculture and Mauritius Sugar Producers' Association. He is the Chairperson of The Mauritius Institute of Directors and The Mauritius Development Investment Trust Company Ltd (MDIT). He is also a member of the Financial Reporting Council and Financial Reporting Monitoring Panel, and a director of Mauritius Molasses Ltd and Mauritius Stationery Manufacturers Ltd, Standard Bank Mauritius Ltd, Sugar Insurance Fund Board.